Take this (6) credit course and learn: Why people get sick, What the roots of sickness are, Prevention, etc.

(CC304) MOTIVATIONAL GIFTS This (4) credit course will enable the student to find their particular Motivational Gift. Motivational Gifts are what motivates us in all areas of our life, regardless of our calling. Too often, we may thrust a member of the Body of Christ into the wrong position of service. When we do not discern a member's motivational Gift, we often take such persons out of the position that the Lord Jesus would have them occupy and place them in positions they are not meant to fill. This wrong placement can cause frustration on one side and disappointment on the other.

(CC400/500) UNDERSTANDING MOTIVATIONAL TEMPERAMENTS This is a three (3) credit hour course designed to place scientific tools and training in the student's hands that are necessary to understand himself/herself and others. Personality assessment tools enable the counselor to identify why and how people make decisions. (CC521) NOUTHETIC COUNSELING Dr. Ronald J. Carter produced a very good syllabus on counseling using the works of Dr. Jay Adams nouthetic approach. The course is filled with scripture and sound counseling principles. It is an equipping course which shows the Christian how to use his Bible in helping people get victory over their problems. (CC705) BREAKING THROUGH INTERNAL BARRIERS "We are hard pressed on every side, yet not crushed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken, struck down, but not destroyed – always carrying about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body." (2 Corinthians. 4:8-10). It is evident from these, and other, verses that even the Apostle Paul was not immune from the everyday trials of life. For centuries, some Christians have labored under the false impression that, because they are Christians, they should "live happily ever after." But Christians are - and have always been - human, too; and that means, contrary to what some would have us believe, that Christians can experience some of the same problems that the world does. This a four (4) credit hour course.

(SS460) MORAL EXCELLENCE This four (4) credit hour course shares a plethora of insights into how to have victory in areas dealing with sexuality and singleness. The textbook THE FOURTH DIMENSION by Dr. Cho is published by Logos International, Plainfield, NJ 07060

(T104/554) DID TONGUES CEASE? This is a three (3) credit hour course based on the book of the same name by Dr. William M. Comfort that shows that God's gifts -- including tongues-- did not cease after 100 A.D. You will be deeply moved as you see the awesome debt of gratitude we owe to so many for keeping alive the truth of the reality of the Holy Spirit: The Monastic Movement in the Third Century, the Eastern Church in the Middle Ages, and also the Franciscans, Waldenses, Jensenists, Quakers, and the shouting Methodists. They kept the torch of the Holy Spirit burning in the midst of great persecution. Learn of heroes of faith, such as Neander, Symeon, Edward Irving, and Maria Woodworth-Etter. The College recommends the syllabus by Pastor Philip R. Byler which comes with video tapes. Materials may be obtained from the Regional Office.

(2) Teach the student the general behavior patterns of each temperament, how it effects every aspect of all of our lives, and how to use this information to develop and maintain human relationships. The textbook may be ordered from the Sarasota Academy of Christian Counselors, 3650 17th Street, Sarasota FL. 34235 . (941)951- 6834 phone; (941)951-7806 fax.

Josh McDowell in the text book A READY DEFENSE provides over sixty (60) vital "Lines of Defense" for the Christian faith. This course is a must! It will arm the believer with such a volume of evidence that the believer will be ready to give a defense for the faith that resides in their heart. How reliable is the Bible? Can we trust it and why? How is the Christian faith different from other religions? Why is Christianity unique? Can we prove the deity and humanity of Jesus?.

The instructor should read the text book before teaching and thoroughly digest the material. The material is not difficult. He/She should construct some diagrams, handouts, etc. The text book is "The Eternal Church" by Dr. Bill Hamon, Christian International, P.O. Box 9000, Santa Rosa, FL 32459

(T 510) EXPLORING THE MYSTERIES OF CREATION This is a three (3) credit hour video series by Dennis Peterson, BS, MA on creation science. His experience as a museum curator and Bible College teacher have given him rich insights into the mysteries of creation. The believer does not have to adapt to the evolutionist to explain the geological fossil accounts. The heaven and the earth were created in six (6) literal days. The vapor canopy encircling the earth provided a "greenhouse" effect making longevity a reality. Humans lived longer, animals and plants grew to enormous sizes. The universal flood dramatically changed the entire planet and caused a geological catastrophe. Your Bible will come alive after learning this material. Information on this video series may be obtained through Christian Resource Foundation, 4345 Stevens Court, Placerville, CA 95667 or P.O. Box 570, El Dorado, CA 95623, (916) 626-4447.

(B502) BIBLICAL HERMENEUTICS This three (3) hour course uses the textbook INTERPRETING THE SCRIPTURES by Kevin J. Conner & Ken Malmin. Every sincere Bible student knows that it is essential to understand the science of Biblical interpretation. The course shares the keys and principles that unlock the Scripture's intended meaning. Not only will the student learn how to rightly divide the word of truth but he/she will learn how to bridge the understanding gap in learning truth.

(B712 & B713) ROOTS OF THE TORAH & HEBREW HISTORY. This course is taught from the belief in the supernatural origin and the absolute trustworthiness of the Old Testament. The 19th century evolutionary theories of Graf-Kuenen-Wellhausen are answered by truly scientific methods of study that consider all the facts of the Bible's own incomparable excellencies. This course exercises the science that treats subjects that are preliminary to study and interpretation of the contents of the Old Testament. This includes the canon, the languages of the Old Testament, Biblical exegesis, history, theology, hermeneutics and antiquities. To do justice to this valuable course, it is necessary to teach the course in 2 quarters; Old Testament Introduction I & Old Testament Introduction II. The recommended textbook is "A SURVEY OF OLD TESTAMENT INTRODUCTION" Gleason Archer, Jr. Moody Press, Chicago, ILL. The syllabi may be obtained from the Regional Office.

(B714) ROOTS OF THE NEW COVENANT The general purpose of this course is to provide a broad understanding of the background and message of the Old Testament. The intertestamental period witnessed the growth of institutions, literature, political parties, and religious sects. A knowledge of these various factors sheds light upon the language of the New Testament. An overview of the Apocrypha is an interesting segment of this course. Also particularly interesting is a discussion on the textual Criticism of the Greek New Testament text. The student should enjoy the study of the New Testament canon and transmission of the text. Each individual book of the New Testament is thoroughly treated. The recommended textbook is "AN INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT" by D.A. Carson, Douglas J. Moo, and Leon Morris, Zondervan Publishing House Grand Rapids, MI 49502, The syllabus may be obtained from the Regional Office.

(B715) THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS This four (4) credit course is based on the "The Dead Sea Scrolls Bible": The Oldest Known Bible Translated for the First Time into English, and is the first full English translation of the Hebrew scriptures used by the Essene sect at Qumran. (The Essenes, along with the Pharisees and Sadducees, were among the three most influential Jewish groups of their time [150 B.C. to 68 A.D.]). Between 1947 and 1956, in 11 caves overlooking the Dead Sea, more than 800 manuscripts of two types were found. The first are called "biblical"--because they contain material that was later canonized in the Hebrew Bible; the second are called "non-Biblical"--because they contain poetry, rules for holy living, and imaginative, midrashic interpretations that are unique to the community that produced them.

(E540) CHURCH HISTORY This course treats the ante-Nicean period of church history, from Christ to Constantine. The foundation of the church, how the Gospel was spread, the accusations and persecution against the church, the faithful witnesses, and the transition to the state religion comprise the main topics of the course. The recommended text book is THE TRIAL & TESTIMONY OF THE EARLY CHURCH by Dr. Ken Curtis and Carston Peter Thiede, published by the Christian History Institute, Box 540, Worcester, PA 19490, (610) 584-1893, Fax (610) 584-4610. The textbook identifies the problems which bind most churches and prevent them from growing spiritually or numerically - no matter what the size. It reviews the traditional forms of church government and considers how the principles of team ministry can be utilized by the local church. The course is thoroughly biblical. It takes the student through the Old and New Testament principles of church government.

(NT821) CREATION / EVOLUTION This is a very fundamental four (4) credit hour course to be taught on the trimester schedule. The course teaches a truly Christian world view. In the day in which we live, the Christian is bombarded with a plethora of secular scientific knowledge. The problem that the Christian faces, is knowing how to reconcile this knowledge with his faith in the Bible. How can I still believe the Bible and yet interpret this other information properly? The answer does not lend itself to accommodating secular humanism by trying to reinterpret the Bible. The course begins by proving the vanishing case for evolution science. The DNA chain clearly gives evidence to a superintending creative mind. Simply by using the scientific tools of logic and observation, the student can reason through the fallacy of evolutionary horology. Living systems point to a creation. Darwin and the nature of biological change are scrutinized in this course. The fossil record does not have any transitional forms. The course deals with creation and the laws of science, catastrophist in geology and how and when the world began. The syllabus, "The Revolution Against Evolution," was developed by Douglas B. Sharp and the illustrations by Richard Geer and Dennis Peterson. The syllabus may be obtained from the Regional Office..

The syllabus was developed from Dr. William M. Comfort's notes and the text book and may be obtained from the Regional Office. The recommended text book is THE BEST OF JOSH MCDOWELL, A READY DEFENSE, (T523) THE INSPIRATION & AUTHORITY OF THE SCRIPTURES The purpose of this course is to examine what the Bible itself says about revelation and about its own inspiration. The course also enunciates the testimony given by Christ concerning the Scriptures and the testimony of the church down through the centuries. Some theories regarding inspiration are examined. The supernatural characteristics concerning the divine origin and sovereign authority of the Scripture are studied. The difficulties of the Bible are explained, the canon, transmissions of the text, and the limits of Biblical criticism and opposition to the plenary verbal inspiration of the Scriptures are answered. The recommended text book is THE INSPIRATION & AUTHORITY OF SCRIPTURE by Rene Pache, published by Sheffield Publishing Company, P.O. Box 359, Salem, WI 53168, (414) 843-2281.

(PT501) APOSTOLIC FOUNDATIONS This three (3) credit hour course will take the student on an in depth study of the foundational truths and principles given to us through the Apostles teaching as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. The church of God and the Body of Christ is to be built upon these teachings and principles, if it is not, then it will not have the wisdom or strength to endure and flourish.

NEW TESTAMENT GREEK COURSES

NOTE: The seminary offers four quarters of Greek language instruction using the text book "A TEACH YOURSELF BOOK. BASIC GREEK IN 30 MINUTES A DAY" by Jim Found, published by BETHANY HOUSE PUBLISHERS, 6820 Auto Club Road, Minneapolis, MN 55438. Each of the four quarters is on video.

(L501) BASIC GREEK I This course begins with learning the Greek alphabet, vowels, diphthongs, breathing marks, accents and the association between Greek and English words. The student is amazed to discover how many Greek vocabulary words have been carried over into the English language. The student actually builds his/her own Greek dictionary. The course is a confidence builder teaching approximately 200 Greek vocabulary words. The lessons 1 - 12 take the student into translating passages from the Greek New Testament.

(L502) BASIC GREEK II This course begins with guttural "ng" sounding words. Guttural words are spoken in the throat. The student learns to recognize proper names spelled with uncials (capital letters). The course proceeds with teaching the 2nd class declension of nouns and adjectives, the present indicative active form of simple verbs, and more exciting Greek New Testament translation work. The course expands as the student learns the significance of the six Greek tenses, five Greek moods, participles, and prepositions. This course, chapters 13 - 20, ends with the student learning how pronouns and prepositions are used in grammatical cases.

(L503) BASIC GREEK III This course takes the student into serious translation work. A larger understanding of the seven Greek cases enables the student to learn how nouns are used in Greek New Testament sentences. A knowledge of case endings enables the student to locate the case and usage of the noun, pronoun, or adjective. The first declension is introduced. Then the masculine, feminine, and neuter gender forms of the article are linked to the conjugation of nouns, pronouns, and adjectives. The student also learns the various forms of the verb "to be." Lesson 27 requires translation of the first chapter of I John. The next lessons enhance the student's knowledge by teaching him how adverbs, conjunctions, pronouns used as adjectives, and articles are used in the Greek New Testament syntax. This course, lessons 21 - 30, concludes with pronoun/adjective combinations and the conjugation of cardinal numbers.

(L504) BASIC GREEK IV This course begins with various usages of reflexive, possessive, indefinite, and relative pronouns. The student then goes into a more serious translation of I John 1 with emphasis upon how the pronouns are used in the chapter. The course moves on by taking the student into Greek word studies, learning the connection between English and Greek words, and understanding the basic meanings of religious terms through examining their Greek word derivations. The student explores the use of the Greek preposition "with" as it is used throughout the Pauline Epistles. A simple "alpha" before a noun changes the word to the opposite meaning. The translation work then explores the theology of the various uses of the Greek words for righteousness, sin, confession, repentance, blessing, thanksgiving, and salvation words. The course, lessons 31 - 45, ends with instructing the student on the use of the Greek lexicon.

(L505) BASIC GREEK V This four (4) credit course is rehearsal and review of what the student has learned in (L501-504). The School of Tomorrow has developed Self Pac 121-126 which enables the student to be more thoroughly grounded in basic Greek translation skills. The lesson plans may be obtained from the Regional Office.

(L506) BASIC GREEK VI This four (4) credit course takes the student up to the next level of New Testament Greek. The School of Tomorrow has developed Self Pac 127-132 which enables the student to work with conjugations, declensions, participles, adjectives, pronouns, and other parts of speech. The lesson plans may be obtained from the Regional Office.

(L507) ADVANCED GREEK This five (5) credit course covers a total of ten (10) School of Tomorrow work books which specialize in orthography and inflection. It is at this point where the student will feel a sense of break through. Confidence will soar in this exercise and the student will gain a sense of satisfaction which will prepare for the task of New Testament Greek translation work.

(L508) GREEK EXEGESIS OF JOHN'S EPISTLES It is at this point that the student will need the following Greek tools; The Greek New Testament According to The Majority Text, second edition, Zane C. Hodges & Arthur L. Farstad, editors {item AK49635 CBD catalog Sept/Oct. 2000} and The New Analytical Greek Lexicon, Wesley Perschbacher editor {item AH75338 CBD catalog Sept/Oct 2000} and a large spiral bound notebook. The student will write on one line the Greek text and leave four spaces for the next line. After the three epistles of John are written down, the task of exegesis begins. First the student translates the text and then each individual word is parsed. The student will be amazed at how rich this exercise is. (L508) is a five (5) credit hour course. The syllabus may be obtained from the Regional Office.

MESSIANIC JEWISH STUDY COURSES (MJS)

Master's Degree (M.T.S.) in Messianic Jewish Studies totaling 48 Credits
Doctor's Degree (Th.D.) in Messianic Jewish Studies (48 Credits, plus a research Dissertation or equivalent project, 12 Credits)

(MJS500) GENESIS I - 4 Credits

This is a study of the very first book of the Hebrew Scriptures the "Torah," the "Law." The approach used in this in-depth study is from a Messianic Jewish perspective, and is based on the commentary work of Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum. The Hebrew meaning of words and phrases of Genesis will become more significant as we follow the "Toldot" structure of this course: eleven family documents written in Hebrew that were handed down from one generation to the next, and eventually to Moses, who wrote the book, Genesis.

(MJS501) GENESIS II - 4 Credits

This study covers the life and events of three great people in the beginning stages of the Jewish people and their history: Isaac, Jacob, and Joseph. In all cases, God is directing events to their fulfillment. Chapters 1-11 covered about 2,000 years or more of the beginning of history in the Fertile Crescent from Eden to Haran; chapters 12-50 covers about 200 years in Canaan, Haran, and Egypt. The focus of Genesis II will be on chapters 24-50. The required reading resources from Genesis I will carry-over into Genesis II. All required reading texts should be finished by the completion of Genesis II.

(MJS502) JESUS IN THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES & Y'SHUA - 4 Credits

This is a concise study of the names and appearances of God in the Old Testament from a Messianic Jewish perspective. More precisely, it is a scholarly, investigative work about the One in the Godhead who manifested Himself as a man in numerous accounts throughout the Hebrew Scriptures to men and women, and they did not die. Who is this mysterious "Angel" who spoke and appeared, and caused a prophetic event to be fulfilled, and then disappeared from sight? What were the circumstances of His appearing, and why? Is there only one name of God, or many? In the second text of study, "Y'shua," the author wrote: "Long ago, the Jewish Scriptures predicted the coming of One who would redeem the world from evil and usher in a new order of living." This book examines those prophecies to see whether Jesus fulfilled them."

(MJS503) HA-MASHIACH: MESSIAH OF THE HEBREW SCRIPTURES & CHRONOLOGICAL LIFE OF CHRIST - 4 Credits

This study is concerned with what is known theologically as Messianic Christology. It is a survey of the Messianic prophecies in the Hebrew Scriptures which were fulfilled at the First Coming of Messiah (Jesus Christ). This study is presented from a Messianic Jewish perspective, and it will be shown that these prophecies in the life of Yeshua (Jesus) cannot be fulfilled in any other way. The Old Testament Scriptures which speak of the First Coming of the Messiah will be examined in the same context and categories of the Bible that Jesus and the Apostles used: The Hebrew Scriptures: The Law, The Prophets, and The Writings.

(MJS504 / MJS505) LIFE OF MESSIAH I & II AND A HARMONY OF THE GOSPELS - 8 Credits

This course is the study of the Jewish foundations of the Life of Messiah from a Messianic Jewish perspective based on the teaching of Dr. Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum, and is taught in conjunction with "Ariel's Harmony of the Gospels" and "YESHUA: The Life of Messiah From A Messianic Jewish Perspective." This eight credit course is a study of the Life of Yeshua, the Messiah (Jesus) based on the context and culture of first century Israel. The Gospels were written for different target audiences with themes emphasized, but each of them was written within the framework of the culture of first century Israel.
